

Bay Area Edition

Summer 2013

Dandelion

EMBRACING UNIQUE CHILDREN

FREE
TAKE ONE!

goDANDELION.com

COOL
Reading Apps

Running for a Cause

Tasty Treats
for Sensitive Tummies

brought to you by sacramento
parent

Have A Ball

Compiled by Shelly Bokman

{ goodies }

Digi Squeeze Exercise Balls

Weak hand grip? Busy fingers? Stress? The Digi Squeeze Exercise Ball Set helps develop isolated finger strength, flexibility, and coordination for sensory integration and strengthening. Kids love the feel and fit of this perfectly designed finger exerciser. 5 piece set of 4" balls.

$27.49 | FunAndFunction.com

Spaghetti Ball

A tactile feast for your child! These colorful noodles are soothing to the touch. Run your fingers through or stretch them out one by one.

$7.95 | FlagHouse.com

Jumbo Reaction Ball

This six-knob soft foam ball is unpredictable when it rolls and bounces helping your child sharpen reaction skills, coordination, and agility. Large, 15" dia. size makes it easier to catch for beginners.

$9.95 | FlagHouse.com

Boochie

This award-winning action-packed family game involves tossing, kicking, bowling, and throwing! Every round gives you different crazy throwing challenges. You may have to toss between your legs, behind your back, or even with your eyes closed. The player with the most points wins. 2-4 players. Playing time is about 15 minutes.

$29.95 | By Gamewright, available on Amazon.com

Oblo Sphere

This three-dimensional puzzle challenges kids to think in multiple dimensions, builds spatial awareness, and develops motor skills. The four color-coded layers nest inside one another making the puzzle progressively harder as you advance from one sphere to the next.

$20 | FatBrainToys.com

